We explore the "wild East" of Ratanakiri and survey the mighty waterfalls that thwarted the grand designs of French imperialists in Stung Treng (and which now mark the Lao border). Explore Mekong flooded forests at Ramsar Wetlands by kayak. Climb to the top of the world heritage Preah Vihear temple via the snaking road up the mountain. Itinerary in Details:

Day 1: Phnom Penh – Arrival, CAMBODIA (Meal: Dinner)

Fly into Phnom Penh, the city that retains its traditional Khmer and colonial charm. French villas along tree-lined boulevards remind the visitor that the city was once considered the 'pearl' of Southeast Asia. Recent political changes have triggered an economic boom, with new hotels, restaurants, bars and nightclubs springing up across the city.

We enjoy our cyclo ride along the riverside. This laidback tour gives us a different perspective of the streets and sights of the city. We will enjoy a cruise for view sunset on the Mekong and Tonle Sap River (1 hour). Situated at the "Four Arms" where the Mekong meets the Tonle Sap River before splitting into tow branches, Phnom Penh offers the ideal location to discover the mighty Mekong. Board a nicely restored wooden boat for a day cruise, enjoy the unspoiled landscapes along each bank and visit the traditional villages with their old pagodas on the islands.

This afternoon we will try food adventure tours in Phnom Penh. A fun way to explore the local market and learn about Khmer cuisine. Not as well-known as the neighboring countries Cambodia has a great variety of national dishes and there are many stories to be told by your guide. Step out with me to a local market, try some tropical fruits, interesting desserts and maybe even some creepy crawlies. We then head to a delicious, traditional Khmer BBQ where we will eat dinner as the locals eat, washed down with the national beverage – beer!

Overnight in Phnom Penh.

Day 2: Phnom Penh's Past & Present (Meal: Breakfast, Lunch)

Visit to the Royal Palace compound build in 1866 by the Predecessors of King Norodom, is the most conspicuous feature and also one of impressive colorful Khmer-style Palaces. Nearside the Royal Palace is Silver Pagoda (The Emerald Buddha temple), display plenty of Buddha Statues that were decorated and made by diamond, emerald, gold and silver. Continuing visit to National Museum, the distinctive red building with a beautiful Khmer architecture was build since 1917 and contains more than 5000 art objects made of sandstone, bronze, silver, copper, wood and others. Travelers will proceed to visit Independence Monument which was constructed in 1954 after Cambodian took their country back from French colony.

This afternoon, we will learn about the dark side of Cambodia – Its more recent turbulent and harrowing history. Initially you visit the Toul Sleng Genocide Museum (also known as S21), ironically a former school, located in a quiet Phnom Penh suburb, this was the infamous Khmer Rouge prison / torture centre. Once you have gained an initial insight of the brutality of the Khmer Rouge regime you will be driven 15km from Phnom Penh to visit the 'Killing Fields'. This is where Toul Sleng prisoners were forcibly marched and then executed; it is now a memorial site located in a beautiful tranquil setting.

Overnight in Phnom Penh.

Day 3: Phnom Penh – Kampong Cham – Kratie (Meal: Breakfast)

Morning we drive to Kratie, a sleepy Mekong port and gateway to an encounter with the rare freshwater Irrawaddy dolphin that inhabit the upper reaches of the Mekong in Cambodia. En route, there is the chance to pause at Skuon, where it is possible to sample the local delicacy of deep fried tarantula.

Arrive in Kampong Cham, we visit Wat Nokor also called Nokor Bachey Pagoda is an 11th century Mahayana Buddhist shrine made of sandstone and laterite with a large reclining Buddha and numerous alcoves containing Buddha images. We continue to Phnom Pros ("Man Hill") and Phnom Srei ("Woman Hill"). According to local tradition, two teams of men and women competed to build a stupa on the summit of each hill before dawn. After being tricked into thinking that daybreak had already come, the men lost the competition and, as a result, forever after had to be the ones to approach the women for their hands in marriage. En-route stop at Chhlong village to admire one of the oldest wooden houses of Cambodia.

Overnight in Kratie.

Day 4: Kratie – Mondulkiri (Meal: Breakfast)

After breakfast, we visit the famous 100 pillars pagoda and learn its fascinating history as a place of pilgrimage for residents of Kratie. First built in the 16th century by King Chann Reachea. The pagoda includes 100 wooden columns to commemorate the memory of his daughter Vorakpheak who was killed by a Mekong crocodile. Afterwards we visit the Mekong Turtle Conservation Centre and see one of the most endangered Mekong softshell turtles. The project looks after baby turtles until they become big enough to protect themselves from big fish, snake, etc.

We continue to Kampi, one of the many deep pools where the rare river dolphins gather to feed. We board a local boat and cruise out into the mighty Mekong for a chance encounter with these gentle creatures. On the way back to Kratie, we can stop at the hilltop temple of Phnom Sombok to watch sunset over the Mekong.

We drive to Mondulkiri province. Mondulkiri – means “Meeting of the Hills” a suitable name for such a hilly province. We then continue east towards the small junction town of Snuol, our gateway to the wilds of Mondulkiri. The first half of the journey from Snuol is flat, passing through patches of lush forest and areas of cultivation and plantations. There is lush jungle hugging the road and locals claim to see tigers on this stretch at night. Nearing Sen Monorom, the provincial capital, the scenery changes again, jungle giving way to clusters of pine trees and rolling grasslands. The scenery is unique for Cambodia and dotted with traditional Phong villages, the main minority group in Mondulkiri.

Stay overnight in Mondulkiri.

Day 5: Mondulkiri Santury Project (Meal: Breakfast, Lunch)Join tours with Mondulkiri Sanctuary Project:*8.30am Sen Monorom

We leave behind the wilds of Mondulkiri and hit the road towards the red earth of Banlung – the capital of Ratanakiri Province with the nickname "the Red City" due to the omnipresent laterite.

We travel north on the newest highway that connects Ratanakiri and Mondulkiri via Koh Nhek. Along the way, there is lush jungle hugging the road and locals claim to see tigers on this stretch whereas some parts of the jungle are giving way to clusters of pine trees and rolling grasslands. The scenery is unique for Cambodia and dotted with traditional indigenous hill tribe villages. We arrive to Ban Lung town of Ratanakiri and check into a comfortable hotel. Later in the afternoon, we continue to Yaklaom Lake, a beautiful and perfectly-round stretch of water, surrounded by forest, for a late afternoon swim.

Day 7: Rattanakiri Trekking (Meal: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Starting at 08.30 with the pick-up for Kachon, 45 minutes by road. At Kachon you board a small boat to reach upstream the mighty Sesan River. During this trip you can see beautiful landscapes. When the sky is clear you can see the mountains of the National Park of Virachey. After 45 minutes you get to Kaoh Piek, the native village of Kachanh. A Koah Piek meets your indigenous ranger who will accompany you during the trek. The first part of the trek winds through some cultivated fields, near farmhouses. After you enter the outskirts of the primary forest. Free time for lunch and continue north. The land becomes a po'collinare, where you can enjoy a beautiful view and see the Sesan river, like a silver ribbon and greenish, through the landscape. The trek continues through primary forest, until you reach the camp near the waterfall. Here you will be camping and you can take a swim and cool off under the waterfall.

Day 8: Rattanakiri Trekking – Ban Lung (Meal: Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast we return to Koah Piek. Primary forest is transformed into the secondary. Around noon we arrive at the outskirts of the village Koah Piek, where small farmhouses dot the fields. We can choose to dine in one of the farmhouses and after lunch continue south, up to the Sesan River. Visit the sacred cemetery Kachanh indigenous peoples. The sacred cemetery has many tall wooden statues, representing men and most of them resemble the deceased. Your guide will explain the animist religion of these indigenous peoples. After visiting the sacred cemetery we continue by boat and return to Kachon. From here you take the pick-up to achieve new Banlung.

Day 9: Rattanakiri – Stung Treng & Kayaking & Boat trip along Mekong River (Meal: Breakfast, Dinner)

We leave behind Banlung and travel southwest towards O'Pongman before veering north towards Stung Treng.

Afternoon, we enjoy a short boat trip down to O'Svay where we will start our paddling tours to explore the remote flooded forests of the Mekong, Ramsa wetlands. It stretches south along the Mekong River from the border with Laos to Stung Treng. Only accessible by boat, it is a haven for critically endangered mammals, birds and fish and a unique riverine flooded forest system that is a photographer's dream. With only birdcalls announcing our presence, we maneuvered our way leisurely downstream for a couple of hours before reaching the only village on that stretch of the river, Veun Sien. Our paddling tour of the forest continue until one point that you feel enough, we will travel by boat which follow us back to O'Svay and travel with our van back to Stung Treng. We might arrive on time to view beautiful sunset over the river on Chinese-Cambodian Friendship Sekong Bridge.

Day 10: Stung Treng – Preah Vihear (Meal: Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, we continue to Preah Vihear, our journey through jungle and local village. This good track literate hills along the northern border of the country. Some beautiful scenery along this route as yet unpublished and very wild. The government has offered plots of land so that the region can develop.

We drive up to Preah Vihear which sits at the top of the Dangrek Mountains. Preah Vihear is known as the Temple Mountain which was built at the beginning of the 10th century as a Hindu temple dedicated to Shiva. The temple had further works added to it by the following three kings. The temple today is still a Hindu site, but Buddhist Monks pray at the temple to the Gods. The temple area consists of three stories surrounded by two galleries.

Overnight in Preah Vihear.

Day 11: Preah Vihear – Koh Ker – Peuong Komnu – Beng Mealea – Siem Reap (Meal: Breakfast, Lunch)

We continue our trip to Siem Reap. Our first stop at Koh Ker group is a group of many temples in the forest, about 150km from Siem Reap. These were built when Cambodia was ruled by two kings (uncle and nephew), and Koh Ker was briefly one of the two capital cities, during the 1st half of the 10th century. Some of the temples are still covered with jungle.

We arrive Svay Leu Village and start trekking into the bamboo forest from the village to Peuong Komnu, is a series of Angkorian reliefs carved into the southern cliff of Phnom Kulen, the quality of the work and their preservation is remarkable and the danger of inevitable of the site makes them all the more precious. It is undiscovered tourist site in Angkor areas.

We also visit Beng Mealea is an overgrown ruin 90mn away from Siem Reap. It is huge, but little known and largely untouched. Besides this temple, we see a small quarry where sandstone was cut to build the temple. The technique used to cut the stones will be explained there. We may take more than an hour to visit the entire Temple.

Overnight in Siem Reap.

Day 12: Ta Prohm & Banteay Srei & Kbal Spean (Meal: Breakfast, Dinner)

Rise early to beat the crowds at the photogenic of Ta Prohm "Tomb Raider" fame. Ta Prohm has been abandoned to the elements, a reminder that while empires rise and fall, the riotous power of nature marches on, oblivious to the dramas of human history. Left as it was 'discovered' by French explorer Henri Mouhout in 1860, the tentacle-like tree roots here are slowly strangling the surviving stones, man first conquering nature to create, nature later conquering man to destroy.

We head further out through rural countryside to the small but beautiful temple of Banteay Srei. This temple is largely built of pink sandstone, a harder rock that can be more elaborately carved and better survives the rigors of time. This is an opportunity to capture some good photographs of the clear and detailed carvings. We continue to Kbal Spean, the River of Thousands Lingas, lying under the riverbed, people believe it brings fertility and blessing Angkor area as the river flows to Siem Reap. Walk 1,200meters to visit the Lingas and enjoy lunch and the waterfall. On the way back, we visit Landmine Museum of Mr. Akira. Mr. Ra is dedicated to clearing the Cambodian countryside of landmines laid during the years of conflict and relies entirely on visitors' donation to fund his work.

Dinner with Apsara Dance show at local restaurant.

For those travelers thirsting for cultural highlights of Cambodia, No visit to Cambodia is complete without attending at least one traditional Khmer dance performance, often referred to as 'Apsara Dance' after one of the most popular Classical dance pieces. Traditional Khmer dance better described as 'dance-drama' in that the dances are not merely dance but also meant to convey a story or message.

Day 13: Bike Tour to Angkor Thom & Angkor Wat (Meal: Breakfast)

We hop on our bike to world heritage areas on the roads less travelled. Ride among the jungle passing local village and local shop. It's a very special and acting day as you will explore some of Angkor's most beautiful temples. You will visit the West Gate of Angkor Thom – undiscovered by mass tourist.

- The ancient capital of Angkor Thom (12th century)
- See the South Gate, Bayon Temple – unique for its 54 towers decorated with over 200 smiling faces of Avolokitesvara
- Baphuon temple lying just to the north of Bayon a pyramidal representation of mythical Mont Meru
- We step to see our old palace as Phimeankas temple in huge complex that was used for our king in the past time.
- Then Elephant terrace is platform for king and officer viewed show and people meeting.
- Preah Palilay was is older than Angkor Thom was nearby, deeply in forest and on path back You see monk sprinkle water to people.

We continue to the famous temple: Angkor Wat. Angkor Wat is a World Heritage Site since 1992, famous for its beauty and splendor. Angkor Wat features the longest continuous bas-relief in the world, which runs along the outer gallery walls and narrates stories from Hindu mythology.

Enjoy foot massage 1 hour & walking at busy pub street where you can find many bars for cool drink or shopping at Angkor Night Market.

Day 14: Siem Reap – Departure (Meal: Breakfast)

After breakfast depart Siem Reap for the Tonlé Sap, driving down the eastern side of the lake. Arrive at Kampong Phluk; a 'flooded forest'. Accessible only during high water, you'll pass through the tree tops whilst seated in your boat. Nearby is a fishing village where you will can also learn more about the traditional methods used for generations. Returning to the mainland, meet your driver and return to Siem Reap.
